 The 1st Count de Salis was Ambassador from the Grison Republic to Queen Anne, and his son, the 2nd Count, was natura ised 1730 as a British subject. All younger sons, and their son have a right to prefix "Count" to their Christian names, and sim larly daughters can prefix "Countess" so long as they are unmarrie The family—which contains now between one and two hundre members, mostly German, but some Italian and French—wer created Hered. Kts. by Pope Pius V. in 1571. The name is Italia but the branch given under De Salis (q.v. for all other names) ha anglicised it and thus takes the preposition as part of the surname

CREATIONS. Eng.: Bn. Cecil, 1603: Visc. Cranborne, 160 E. of Salisbury, 1605. Gt. Br.: M. of Salisbury, 1789.—There we Earls of Salisbury from the time of Stephen, but the title unde went several temporary extinctions. The 3rd Earl in the secon line was beheaded by the rabble at Cirencester in 1400. Rich

rill, the 1st in the next line, was attainted and beheaded. His cessor, Earl also of Warwick, was slain at Barnet in 1471. Both ldoms were next conferred upon the Duke of Clarence, the mur- d brother of Edward IV. Then the Duke of Gloucester, after- ds King Richard III., was made Earl of Salisbury. After him garet, daughter of the Duke of Clarence, was Countess, but she was attainted and beheaded. This brings us to the commence- t of the present line, which was created simultaneously with e of Exeter. The Rt. Hon. Sir Robt. Cecil, younger son of Wm. l, Ld. Burghley, and Secretary of State under Elizabeth, was rded the above three English titles shortly after King James's ssion. The 7th Earl, a F.R.S. and Lord Chamberlain to Geo. , was raised to the Marquessate. The 2nd Marq. was Lord tenant of Middlesex and Lord President of the Council. The 3rd Marquess, K.G. and G.C.V.O., was thrice Prime Minister four times Secretary for Foreign Affairs. Previous to his acces- to the Peerage he had been (1853–68) a M.P., at first as Lord t. Cecil and from the death of his elder brother as Visc. Cran- ne.—The family name is conventionally Cecil only, that of Gas- ne having been added by the 2nd Marquess on his marriage with ly of that surname.

REATIONS. Eng.: Bn. Saye and Sele, 1447 by writ, 1603 by nt (precedence governed by latter).—Sir James Fiennes, Warden he Cinque Ports and Lord Treasurer of England, was created Bn.; subsequently, however, he was imprisoned in the Tower nce he was riotously dragged by Jack Cade's mob and beheaded eapside. His successor was made Vice-Adm. of England under reat Earl of Warwick, but afterwards he fled to Flanders with ard IV., and was ultimately slain at the Battle of Barnet. The four Barons were never summoned to Parliament, but the 7th ved a new Barony by letters-patent. The 8th Bn. (2nd by nt, but the numbering is reckoned from the 1st Bn. by writ) distinguished as a leader on the side of the Parliament against Charles, but though he remained "rebelliously disposed" he in 1662 without having suffered any punishment from that rch's son. He was created Visc. Saye and Sele; but at the of his son the 2nd Visc. in 1674 the Baronies went into abey-the one by writ being regarded as governing the succession; he Viscty. held on till the death of its 6th possessor in 1781. is date the abeyance was determined in favour of Thos. Twisle-a Major-General in the Army, who thereupon succeeded as Bn (the numbering of 'Burke,' derived retrospectively from ate 1715, when the abeyance was actually terminated, though successors de jure never assumed the title). The next Peer ed the name of Fiennes (also Eardley, which went no further his successor), and the 16th (né Twisleton), who was Canon entiary of Hereford Cathedral, adopted the addition of Wyke-Fiennes. He was 20th in descent from Geoffrey, Ld. Saye, f the 25 Barons who wrung from the King the observance of a Charta.—The family name is conventionally Fiennes only, h the full form occurs in the 'Army List.'

CREATIONS. Irel.: Visc. Lumley, 1628. Eng.: Bn. Lumley, 1681; Visc. Lumley, 1689; E. of Scarbrough, 1690.—An English Barony of Lumley was conferred in 1399 upon Sir Ralph de Lumley, Deputy-Governor of Berwick-upon-Tweed; this Peerage lasted till the death of the 7th Bn. in 1609 (his father having been attainted, and himself having obtained the title by a new creation which lapsed on his dying childless). The Irish Viscty. was conferred upon Sir Richd. Lumley (Kt.), a great grandson of the previous 5th Bn. and 2nd cousin of the 7th, and who was afterwards a Commander under Prince Rupert. His successor, who held chief command at Sedgemoor in 1685, when the Duke of Monmouth was defeated, obtained the three English titles of the later creation. The 7th Earl assumed the additional name of Savile, but this ceased on the accession of the 9th, who was a cousin.

 The last four Bts. were also holders of the Btcy. of Hartin ton, which passed in 1905 to the Rt. Hon. Sir Alex. Fuller-Acland Hood, 4th Bt. of St. Audries, since cr. 1st Bn. St. Audries. The tw Btcies. of Gt. Barr and Hartington were created the one in the nam of Scott and the other of Bateman, but the latter was made ope to succession of male descendants of the 1st Bt.'s daughters. Th 2nd Bt. of Gt. Barr married the daughter and co-heir of the 1st B of Hartington, and thus the 3rd Bt. in the Gt. Barr line came his birth to be inheritor of the other line also. This explains th double name "Bateman-Scott," or "Bateman and Scott" former in use.

CREATIONS. Scot.: E. of Seafield, Visc. Reidhaven, and Ld. Ogilvy of Deskford and Cullen, 1701.—Sir Walter Ogilvie (Kt.) was in 1616 created Ld. Ogilvie, and his son James was in 1638 and 1641 advanced to be Earl of Findlater. The Lordship and 1st Earldom expired; but the 1641 Earldom lasted till the death of the 7th in its line. James, 4th Earl of Findlater, received two creations of Peerage, the former including a Viscty. of Seafield which lapsed concurrently with the Findlater Earldom. At the second creation he was awarded the above three Scottish titles, this time with remainder to heirs of his estate. Accordingly on the death of the above 7th Earl (4th of Seafield) the titles of 1701 passed to a cousin, Sir Lewis Alex. Grant, 8th Bt., who forthwith assumed the additional name of Ogilvie and became 5th Earl of Seafield. The 9th Earl was made Bn. Strathspey, a title previously granted to the 7th, but lapsing on the death of his successor, which has now branched off as a distinct peerage. The late Earl informed us that the surname is now properly "Grant" only.

Waterford (Irel.) ; Prem. Earl on Rolls both of Er and Irel., but see Introd. under "Earl" ; a Mino Hered. Lord High Steward of Ireland and High Stewa of the Borough of Stafford, grandson of 20th E. : Dec. 1, 1914 ; suc. 1921 (C.). Seat, Ingestre Ha Stafford.

Creations. Eng. : E. of Shrewsbury, 1442. Gt. Br. : Talbot, 1733 ; Earl Talbot and Visc. Ingestre, 1784. Irel. : E. Waterford, 1446.—A Barony of Talbot by writ commenced in 1 (and that out of a feudal Barony dating from the time of Henry and this Peerage continued until it is now for the second time abeyance. Jno. Talbot, 7th Bn. (a Bnss. was 6th in line), a gr Commander in the French wars, termed by Shakespeare "the gr ides of the field," though once defeated and taken prisoner by in of Arc, was created Earl of Shrewsbury and of Waterford, ng twice made Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. He was slain in his

h year after having been victorious in forty fights; and the English minion in France practically expired with him. The 2nd Earl at Northampton on the Lancastrian side. The 6th Earl became husband of the proud and unscrupulous woman Elizabeth, daughof John Hardwick. The 11th Earl died from a wound received duel with the 2nd Duke of Buckingham. The 12th was created ke of Shrewsbury (1694) for his services in transferring the crown William of Orange (he having embraced the Protestant religion place of that of his ancestors): he was afterwards influential in ring the succession of George I. But he left no issue and the cedom expired. His cousin and successor returned to the older gion and was in holy orders. The above Barony of 1331, after first abeyance, passed by marriage into the Norfolk Dukedom, hich it remained until the death of the 9th Duke in 1777. Mean-e in 1733 there had been created the still existing Barony of ot (of Hensol), which was conferred upon Chas. Talbot, son he militant Bp. of Durham (see INTROD., "Bishops") and a endant of one of the younger sons of the 2nd Earl, himself being essively M.P. for Tregony and Durham, a P.C., and afterwards
l Chancellor. His son and successor, Lord Steward of the House-, was created Earl Talbot. The elder Shrewsbury line became nct with the 17th Earl in 1856, so that the succession then passed ie 3rd Earl Talbot, who became 16th Earl of Shrewsbury and of erford. The additional surname Chetwynd was taken by Royal nce by the 1st Earl Talbot, but it is generally ignored in use pt in legal documents.

REATIONS. Eng.: D. of Somerset and Bn. Seymour, 1547 rony one day bef. Dukedom); a Bt. 1611.—Sir Edwd. Seymour her of Jane Seymour and Kt. of the Bath, who became 1st Duke, a great favourite with Henry VIII., who appointed him Prtor of his son Edward VI. (the Duke's nephew). He was also e Earl Marshal and Lord Great Chamberlain, both for life only. andson was the first to receive the Baronetcy. The Protector, ever, was brought to the block in 1552 through an outrageous pation of authority on the part of some leading nobles abetted he Roman Catholics. His titles were thus forfeited, but one is sons was made Earl of Hertford and Bn. Beauchamp. This eman married Catherine, sister of Lady Jane Grey, and her g of royal descent rendered the union criminal in law, both hem were accordingly sent to the Tower, the Earl remaining e for nine years and his wife dying. His grandson succeeded and was in 1640 created Marq. of Hertford, and in 1660 the edom and Seymour Barony were restored with the original edence. He unhappily was guilty of a like indiscretion to that is grandfather, for he secretly married James I.'s 1st cousin, r Arabella Stuart, and had in consequence to flee the country, t his wife died in the Tower. The Marquessate expired with 4th Duke, but the Earldom and the titles of 1547 went to a n, who was shot in Italy by the husband of a lady to whom ad been offensive. The 6th Peer, who was known as "The d Duke," married Lady Eliz. Percy, daughter of the last Earl orthumberland, distinguished as Mistress of the Robes to Queen . The 7th Duke was given the lapsed Earldom just named, both that and the Hertford Earldom, with some other honours, d at his decease, the Dukedom once more going to a collateral, leading title, the second in rank in the Peerage of England, been originally created in 1443, and was repeatedly extinct rfeited before 1547, the 2nd Duke having been beheaded in when taken in arms against Edward IV. at Hexham. The me was long corrupted into Seymour, but the original St. Maur restored by the 13th Duke.

Worthington, of Maple Hayes, Lichfield. Seat, Swynnerton Pk., Stone, Staffs.

CREATIONS. Eng. : A Bt. 1621 ; Bn. Stafford, 1640.—There were eight Bns. Stafford by tenure, and after these there was in 1298 created a Stafford Barony by writ, the 2nd Bn. being made Earl of Stafford (Co.), and the Peerage lasting till 1521, when the 9th Bn. and 8th Earl, who was also 3rd Duke of Buckingham, was beheaded. The Barony was newly created in 1547, when Henry Stafford, son and heir of his beheaded predecessor, was the recipient. This line lasted till about 1640, and was then immediately restarted, Sir Wm. Howard, Kt. of the Bath, a younger son of the Earl of Arundel and a descendant of the last Duke of Buckingham, being made Bn. and Visc. Stafford. He was attainted in 1678 and beheaded in 1680, but in 1688 his widow was made a Countess for life, and her son, created an Earl, this last title continuing till 1762. The title of Stafford was now dormant for over 60 years, but a resolution of the House of Lords in 1824 reversed the attainder of 1678 and awarded the title of 8th Bn. to Sir Geo. W. Stafford-Jerningham, 7th Bt., as heir general of the Howard line. The terms of remainder as given by Nicolas are, " to the heirs male of their bodies, failing which to the heirs [female] of their bodies." The present Baron, succeeding, through his mother, has changed the family name from " Stafford-Jerningham " to " Fitzherbert-Stafford," while the Baronetcy, which cannot be inherited through a female, has passed to a distant cousin—see under " Jerningham." The numbering is reckoned from 1547, as the extinction in 1640 was immediately followed by recommencement. It may be added that in 1461 a Humphry Stafford was created a Baron, but beheaded eight years afterwards.

CREATIONS. Eng. : E. of Suffolk, 1603 ; Visc. Andover and Howard of Charlton, 1622 ; E. of Berkshire, 1626.—Lord T Howard, son of the attainted 4th Duke of Norfolk (beheaded 15 was created Earl of Suffolk : he had been a distinguished na officer under Elizabeth and was specially vigilant in discovering Gunpowder Plot ; later on he was appointed Chancellor of Cambri University and Lord High Treasurer of England. Previously the Earldom he had received the Barony of Howard de Walc but that Barony fell into abeyance on the death of the 3rd L and ultimately was revived in a different branch of the family. 1st Earl's 2nd son was created Visc. Andover and afterwards 1 of Berkshire. The 4th Earl of the latter title succeeded as 1 Earl of Suffolk (the tenures of title in this line having averaged m shorter than those of the other owing to a brother or uncle hav succeeded in four instances). Former Earldoms of Suffolk existed, and one of them in 1448 rose to be a Dukedom : the Duke was beheaded in 1513 and a 4th created a year after : 7th and last was beheaded in 1554. There had also been one I of Berkshire previous to the above creation, but this lasted c 1620–3.

Trentham 1746; Marq. of Stafford, 1786. U.K.: D. of Sutherland, 1833.—The Scottish Earldom is said to have existed in 1057; but William styled the 1st Earl, was given the title about 1230 for his services in suppressing an insurrection. The 11th Earl was succeeded by his sister. The 12th (rather 13th, if the Countess is reckoned) forfeited his title in 1562 from suspected complicity in the Earl of Huntly's rebellion; but it was restored in 1565, from which date his precedence is reckoned in the Scottish Roll of Peers. He was afterwards poisoned by his uncle's widow, who wanted the title for her son; but his own son escaped by accidental detention from the poisoned meal, and the perpetrator was sentenced to death, but preferred suicide in prison. The Countess who was 21st in line married the 2nd Marq. of Stafford, who long afterwards was created 1st Duke (in 1833). The 1st Bn. Gower was Sir Jno. Leveson-Gower, 5th Bt., who had married a daughter of the 1st Duke of Rutland. His successor was raised to the Earldom, the 2nd Earl to the Marquessate, and the 2nd Marq. to the Dukedom. It was the 2nd Duke who assumed the additional name of Sutherland.

REATION. Irel.: Bn. Trimlestown, 1462. (The 16th Bn. spelt title "Trimleston," and that is the form in the Irish Roll, but present Peer restored the form here given.)—Sir Robt. Barnewall s created 1st Bn. by Edward IV. His successor had to receive ardon for participation in the plot of Lambert Simnel. The 3rd . was Lord High Chancellor of Ireland. On the death of the h Peer in 1879 the title was dormant till 1891, when it was imed by a remote cousin who died the same year, before his right l been established: this process had consequently to be under- en by his brother the present Baron. In 1634 there was a dis- e as to precedence between the 7th Bn. and the 9th Bn. Dunsany, l it was then decided in favour of the former. In 1893, when present Peer established his right, the order was reversed; but l later a new Roll was made up with "Trimleston" restored to former position.

CREATIONS. Irel.: Visc. of Valentia, 1622 (N.S.); Bn. Mountnorris, 1629. U.K.: Bn. Annesley, of Bletchington, 1917.—Sir Fras. Annesley (Kt.), a P.C. and Secretary of State in the Irish Government, was created a Baronet (the second person in Ireland to obtain that title) and afterwards made Bn. Mountnorris. The Viscounty was a reversionary grant to fall to Sir Francis on the death of the then Visc., who was without an heir (Sir Henry Power, cr. Visc. 1622, d. 1642); the Mountnorris Barony was valid at once. The 2nd Visc. was made Earl of Anglesey and Bn. Annesley in the English Peerage, and these titles descended to the 1st Earl, who was also 5th Bn. Altham, a title conferred on the 6th Earl's 2nd son. But on his death in 1761 the English House of Lords refused to admit this 6th Earl's eldest son, raising an objection to his legitimacy, which the Irish Parliament had accepted as good. He thus retained the Irish honours and had that of Earl of Mountnorris added to them—an Earldom that went no further than his only surviving son (1793–1844). The Viscty. and the Mountnorris Barony now passed again to a collateral, the grandfather and predecessor of the present Peer; 'Debrett,' however, states that this (10th) Visct. did not officially establish his right to the titles.

His successor was raised to the Earldom, and, becoming a Protestant, was able to take his seat in the Lords. The 5th Earl was drowned when a boy. The 8th was a Vice-Admiral and C.B., and was serving in the Mediterranean at the time of Nelson's victory at Trafalgar, but we are asked to correct the statement that he was himself engaged in that battle. The widow of the 7th Earl lived at the mansion of Strawberry Hill, and married as her 4th husband Chichester Fortescue, afterwards Lord Carlingford. The 1st Ld. Radstock was a brother of the 4th Earl.

CREATIONS. Eng.: Bn. Brooke, 1621. Gt. Br.: Earl Brooke 1746; E. of Warwick, 1759.—The Rt. Hon. Sir Fulke Greville, K.G. of the Bath and Chancellor of the Exchequer, was created Ld. Bn. Brooke; he was descended on the female side from the brother of Wm. de Beauchamp, 10th Earl of Warwick (died 1298) in the original line. The 2nd Bn. was a General in the Parliamentary Army at Edgehill and in the Siege of Lichfield, during the latter of which he was killed by a musket-ball. The 4th Bn. was one of the Commissioners who invited Charles II. to return. The 8th Bn. was promoted to be Earl Brooke; and later, when a pre-existing Earldom of Warwick had become extinct, that title was added to his previous one. There had been Earls of Warwick from the time of William II., and the extinctions, forfeitures, and beheadings which have followed them, make the title a rival in tragedy with the Norfolk Dukedom. These concomitants, however, have been happily absent from the present line of descent. The 13th Earl of the original line (brother-in-law of the famous "king-maker," who in 1450 was created Earl for life) was promoted to be Duke of Warwick and crowned "King of the Isle of Wight" by Henry VI.'s own hand. These latter honours went no further than himself, and his sister's husband, who received the Earldom by a fresh creation, was slain at Barnet in 1471. Edward IV.'s brother, the Duke of Clarence, was the next recipient of the title, but he was attainted and murdered; his three successors being all beheaded. The second of the three who thus suffered was Margaret, Countess of Salisbury and Warwick the third, who was previously Visc. L'Isle, was created Duke of Northumberland two years before his execution. His son was restored to the Earldom, but died childless in 1589, when the title remained extinct till 1618. A new series of eight Earls now followed, and upon the lapsing of their line in 1759 that of the present Earl succeeded as stated above. "Earl Brooke," being the older, is the leading title upon the Roll.

Tyrone, 1786.—'Burke' gives us precise date of creation of the original Barony, but does not give name of its first holder, so that it appears doubtful whether satisfied of its existence; Bn. le Power, however (a title under which for about 1700, and the heir to which is E. de P. de la Poer gives us as a descendant of Robt. de Poher, Knight Marshal and Joint Governor of Ireland in 1179. The 6th Bn. was in 1672 created Earl of Tyrone and Visc. Decies, but these titles expired with the 3rd Earl. The daughter of this last, however, who was created the Barony of La Poer in fee, married Sir Marcus Beresford, Kt., and to him were accorded the Viscty. of Tyrone and subsequently a renewal of the lapsed Earldom. The 2nd Earl was elevated to Marquessate and created Bn. Tyrone of Gt. Britain, whilst on death of his mother he inherited also the Barony of La Poer and only Irish Peerage besides the Massereene Viscty. which is also female succession. The 4th Marq. was in holy orders, and Bn, who had represented Co. Waterford in Parliament, became Lieutenant, a K.P., and Master of the Buckhounds: the 6th, K.P., was accidentally drowned. The late Adm. Baron Beresford) was a brother of the 5th Marq.

CREATIONS. U.K.: Visc. Wellington and Bn. Douro, 1 Marq. and Earl of Wellington, 1812; D. of Wellington and M Douro, 1814. Irel.: Bn. Mornington, 1746; E. of Mornin and Visc. Wellesley, 1760. Nethds.: Prince of Waterloo, 1 Spain: Duque de Ciudad Rodrigo and a Grandee of the 1st C 1812. Portugal: Conde do Vimeiro, 1811; Duque da Vic (commonly spelt Vittoria, but the town is in Spain, where tt is n used), and Marquez de Torres Vedras, 1812.—Of the deeds of great Duke of Wellington, the "hero of a hundred fights," this b is called upon to chronicle but the slightest summary. He sat in Irish Parliament in 1790 as Member for Trim, but from 1794 to his career was all but wholly a military one. His first great b was that of Assaye (1803) in the Nizam's dominions; and aft came the long series of the Peninsular War—Vimieira, Tala Busaco, Fuentes d'Onoro, Ciudad Rodrigo, Badajoz, Salams and Vitoria (these in 1808–13), followed by Orthez and Tou in France (1814), and then Quatre Bras and Waterloo. From 1828 for not quite three years he was Prime Minister. He die 1852 at the age of 83. All the above honours of U.K. and the C nent were accorded to him personally. His grandfather, the Bn. Mornington (Irish Peerage), was Richd. Colley, who assu a cousin's surname of Wesley (the celebrated Rev. Jno. Wesley a relative) and afterwards changed it to Wellesley. The 2nd obtained the Earldom of Mornington, and his 3rd son was th Duke. The two elder sons were respectively Richard, 2nd created Marq. Wellesley in Ireland, who was Governor-Gener India, but died without succession; and William, 3rd Earl, cr Bn. Maryborough—both titles passing to his son and gran but that of Maryborough lapsing on the death of this last in when the Mornington titles and the Wellesley Viscty. went t 2nd Duke.

Scots, twice a . and L.C.C. (as Lord Elcho); son of 9th E.: b. Aug. 1857; suc. 1914 (C.); mar. 1883 Mary Constance, . of the late Hon. Percy S. Wyndham, son of 1st Bn. onfield. Seats, Gosford House, Longniddry, Hadding- sh.; Amisfield, Haddington; Neidpath Castle and y Lodge, Peebles; Elcho Castle, Perth; Stanway ise, Winchcombe, Glos.; town res., 62 Cadogan Sq., .

REATIONS. Scot.: Ld. Wemyss, 1628; E. of Wemyss and Elcho and Methel, 1633; E. of March, Visc. of Peebles, and Ld. glas of Neidpath, Lyne, and Munard, 1697. U.K.: Bn. Wemyss, .—Sir Jno. Wemyss, 1st Bt. (a title which expired with his son), created 1st Ld. and Earl: he sided with the Parliament in the War. The 2nd Peer obtained a new patent giving remainder is Earldom and Lordship to his daughter and her heirs male. heir of the Earl 5th in line was attainted for taking part in the llion of 1745, so that the titles remained dormant from his father's h till his own (1756–87), when, as he left no issue, his brother eeded as untouched by the attainder. ('Burke,' however, clarly calls the attainted successor "6th Earl de jure," thus ing the present Peer the 11th; 'Debrett,' on the other hand, king the Css. in the numbering, styles him only the 8th.) The r's grandson, the 9th Earl, inherited also the Earldom of March, bestowed on a son of the 1st Duke of Queensberry, the Hon. Douglas, whose sister had married the 4th Earl of Wemyss. The Earl was likewise the recipient of the U.K. Barony. Surname rentionally Charteris only: this had been assumed in 1771 by 6th Earl; Douglas appears to have been added by the 7th on accession to the March Earldom with the landed estate of his t great grandmother Lady Anne Douglas.

Neville Stephen Lytton, O.B.E., son of 1st E. of Lytton. Res., Rossetti Studios, Flood St., S.W. 3.

CREATION. Eng.: Bn. Wentworth, 1529 by writ.—Sir Thomas Wentworth (Kt.) was granted the title of Bn. Wentworth. The 2nd Bn., the last English Governor of Calais, was made a P.C. and a Kt. Banneret. The 4th Bn. was created Earl of Cleveland, but that title went no further. Two granddaughters followed as holders of that Barony, and in their line of successors we find the further extinct titles of Visc. Wentworth and Bn. Lovelace. The Wentworth Barony itself in 1815 fell into abeyance between the deceased Baron's sister Judith (who by marriage had become Lady Milbanke) and his nephew Lord Scarsdale; but this condition was terminated on the death of Lord Scarsdale in 1856, by the succession of Anna Isabella, daughter of Lady Milbanke and then widow of Lord Byron (whose surname was Noel-Byron). Her only child, the Hon. Augusta Ada Noel-Byron, mar. as his 1st wife 8th Bn. King, crea. 1st E. of Lovelace, and the Wentworth Bny. after being held by their two sons, eventually devolved upon the only child of the 2nd E. as Bnss. 14th in line in 1906, thence passing to the late (15th) Bnss. CREATIONS. Irel.: Bn. of Delvin, perhaps 1389 by writ; Westmeath, 1621.—The name of Gilbert de Nugent is given as of the 1st Bn. by tenure. The title then passed by marriage to FitzJohn family, but came back by the same process to Sir Nugent. In concert with the Earl of Kildare the 12th Bn. engaged in hostilities with the native Chiefs, by one of whom, O' nor, he was treacherously made a prisoner and kept long in con ment. The 14th Bn. was commissioned by the Crown to extir the O'Mores, but was sent prisoner to London in 1580 on suspi of holding treasonable correspondence with the Leinster rel having, however, established his innocence, he returned to Irel and Elizabeth ordered him several grants of forfeited land, w the troubles of the country prevented his receiving. His son, 15th Bn., was raised to the Earldom. The 4th Earl was outla for having fought for James II., but the sentence was afterw remitted. The 6th Earl conformed to the Protestant Church. 8th was in 1822 created a Marquess, but he left no son and that lapsed in 1877, whilst the Earldom passed to a cousin, an ance of whom had been created Lord Riverston by James II. after a cation—the title consequently being never admitted, though continued to be used till its holder became 9th Earl. Stanley Howard of Ballina Pk., Wicklow, and widow of Samuel Garnett. Club, Turf.

CREATIONS. Eng.: Bn. St. John of Basing, 1539; E. of Wiltshire, 1550; M. of Winchester, 1551.—Sir Wm. Paulet, K.G., was the recipient of these three creations. He was a confidant of Henry VIII. and held the office of Lord Treasurer of England through the changes of the three succeeding reigns; and on being once asked how he had contrived to stand through them all, he replied, "By being a willow, not an oak." The 3rd Peer was given to literature and writing poetry. The 5th sacrificed all his property through supporting Charles I. in the Civil War, his mansion at Basing being burnt to the ground after a siege. The 6th Marq. was made Duke of Bolton, and that title ran through six in the line. The 3rd Duke (8th Marq.) involved himself with the actress Lavinia Bestwick, and had three sons by her previously to the death of his 1st wife. As he left no other issue, though he eventually married the actress, his titles went to his brother; but on the death of the 6th Duke, who was an Admiral of the White, the Dukedom expired and the Marquessate passed to a descendant of the 5th holder of that title. The 13th Marq. in his closing years assumed the additional name of Burroughs, but this appears to have been for himself alone. His grandson the 15th Peer was a Major in the Coldstream Guards and was killed at Magersfontein in December 1899.

Finch, 1674; E. of Nottingham, 1681.—The widow of Sir Moyle Finch, 1st Bt., was created Viscts. Maidstone and Ctss. of Winchilsea. The eldest son succeeded his father in the Baronetcy, but he predeceased his mother, so that his next brother became her successor in the Peerage. Sir Heneage Finch (Kt.), son of the 3rd brother, having been Attorney-General and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, was separately created a Bt. and raised to the Peerage as Bn. Finch, and subsequently appointed Lord Chancellor with the title of Earl of Nottingham. His son, the 2nd Earl, succeeded as 7th Earl of Winchilsea. Previously hereto the 3rd Earl of Winchilsea (distinguished by having 27 children), who was high in favour with the 2nd Charles and James (prevailing upon the latter to return to London on his first attempted flight), was made Bn. FitzHerbert, a title that expired with the 5th Earl. His successor, named above as having united the two Earldoms, was twice Secretary of State under William, Anne, and George I.

CREATION. Eng. : Bn. Zouche of Haryngworth, 1308, by writ. —William la Zouche, Lord of Haryngworth, was summoned to Parliament as 1st Bn. The 4th Peer was engaged in the French wars of Richard II. and Henry IV. On the death of the 11th Bn. in 1625 the title fell into abeyance, and so continued till 1815. The 5th Bn. had married the Bnss. St. Maur, 7th in line ; but the abeyance affected both titles, and in the latter case has never been terminated. A second, but brief, abeyance of the Zouche line occurred in 1825, and the daughter in whose favour it was determined altered her title to De la Zouche. Her son the 14th Bn. did not continue this form, and the title stands on the Roll as "Zouche of Haryngworth."

INDEX TO THE SEATS AND RESIDENCES CITED IN THE DIRECTORY OF TITLED PERSONS.

 The design of this Index, the comprehensiveness of which we have been compelled somewhat to limit, is to furnish a ready reference to the occupant of every address in the Directory within the British Isles, provided it bears a distinctive name, is non-official character, and held by a person not lower in rank than a Knight or the son or daughter of a Baron. The only exceptions are those unsubstantiated claimants, or of ladies whose former claims to titles have been forfeited by re-marriage. Many residences will doubtless merely villas or even houses in a terrace distinguished by some special name; but no line of exclusion can possibly be drawn, nor is it for in a list which is not restricted to "seats." On the other hand there are almost certainly a large number of villages and hamlets in the form of residences; but this also is unavoidable (except by the putting of questions which would often be thought offensive) i of the large number of actual seats which are designated by apparently local names without the addition of the word "House," "Ha "Park." Yet again, there are a large number of residences which are appended to more than one name in the DIRECTORY; and in cases, if relationship cannot be traced, it is presumable that one name represents the occupant and the other the owner. We have our best to make the distinction clear, or at any rate to supply the name of the occupant.

The greatest pains have been taken to supply to every address the far too frequently omitted post-town, a long dash being subst when the Editor's efforts for its discovery have been without avail. More complete addresses will very often be found under the in the Directory, but they are never consciously so abridged as to entail extra labour on the Post Office. It should be noted in th of such abridgments as "Glos.," "Worc.," "Leic.," that they invariably denote the county and not the county town—no town wh being contracted if it can possibly be confused with the county. "Durham" without "Co." means the city of Durham, and simil numerous Irish examples.

At the cost of much additional space, every address is now given in the style prescribed under our "Modes of Addressing Pers Title;" many contractions, however, will naturally be expanded in copying. The name and style of the wife is appended in those ous instances in which the husband does not hold a title which would on his own account have given him a place in this work.

The rule observed in alphabetising has been to treat the entire name of the residence as one word (the parenthesised "The," coming its true position, can only be ignored): this course is unavoidable on account of the vast number of instances in which a compound nation is spelt by some in a single word and by others in two.

Messrs.

GABBITAS, THRING & Co.

have a Department specially organised for advising Parents and Guardians as to the best Educational Establishments for Boys and Girls in the United Kingdom or on the Continent. The Firm have had experience as Educational Agents for nearly fifty years, and during their long career have been instrumental in sending Masters and Tutors to the leading Schools and Tutors' Establishments, and are in the closest touch with all educational matters. They can give FREE OF CHARGE to the parent or guardian information and advice as to :—

(1) Public and Endowed Schools.
(2) Preparatory Schools.
(3) Schools or Tutors' Establishments adapted specially for preparing Boys for Engineering, Agricultural, Scientific, or Commercial Careers.
(4) Private Tutors preparing for Army, Navy, Civil Service, and University Examinations, or receiving backward or delicate Pupils requiring special attention.
(5) Finishing Schools or Schools for younger Girls at home or abroad.
(6) Domestic Economy, Agricultural, Horticultural and Secretarial Colleges.
(7) Girls' Schools giving a thorough general education and preparing for Examinations.
(8) Professors, Pasteurs, and Private Families receiving Pupils wishing to study abroad.

To enable the Firm to advise efficiently it is necessary that full particulars should be given, especially as to the age of the Pupil, previous education, and present standard of attainments, special subjects of study, locality, whether a large or small establishment is preferred, and the fees it is intended to pay.

The Firm also can assist in procuring the services of Private Tutors and Governesses, Resident, Travelling, Non-Resident, or Visiting, of whom they always have a large number on their Lists.

Transfers of and Partnerships in Boys' and Girls' Schools are also negotiated.

Masters, Tutors and Governesses seeking Posts can have a Prospectus free of charge.

BATH.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :—" Bath City and County Borough. Health resort, Somerset. Only Hot Springs in British Isles. Most perfectly equipped modern bathing establishments in Europe." The ancient Episcopal City of Bath occupies a leading position as a fashionable inland watering-place, a popular health-resort, and residential town, noted for the curative efficacy of its hot chalybeate springs, its architectural beauty, and picturesque surroundings. Extensive Roman remains. Unrivalled combination of archaeological, historical, social and scenic attractions. Pop., 50,721. 107 miles from London, 11 miles from Bristol (G.W. Railway and Midland Railway). Neighbourhood—Woodland hills and diversified country. Excellent educational facilities. Bath stands alone in Great Britain as a City of considerable size, and much reputation, the beginnings of which have been determined by the existence of Thermal Springs. Traditions assert that the first discovery of the Springs and acquaintance with their healing virtues were made in primitive times before the advent of the Romans.—Vide : Climate and Baths of Great Britain and Ireland.

Rev. Dr. BATCHELOR, Vicarage, Cookham.

EASTBOURNE.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :—" Its advantages as a health resort are much sunshine, clean, quickly-drying roadways, large parks and gardens with many trees, a plentiful and good water-supply from wells sunk in the deep chalk, and the proximity to the breezy, health-giving South Downs. The climate is beneficial for convalescents and in anæmia, scrofula, and early tubercular disease ; excellent for children. Full benefit of winter sun is secured. Beachy Head breaks S.W. winds, and diverts much rain, dryness of soil being promoted by great porosity of chalk. Always at or near the top for sunshine in official records." Situated on the coast between Brighton and Hastings, on the eastern slopes of Beachy Head, which rises 550 feet above the sea, and shelters the town, Eastbourne has developed, under the fostering influence of the Devonshire and Gilbert families, into a fashionable watering-place (select but not dull) ; a residential town (within one and a half hours from London by express train) ; and an important educational centre. The sea-front extends for a distance of three miles, without a single shop. Sunshine (1921), 2,067 hours. Pop., 52,542. (See also page xx.)

FOLKESTONE.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :—" Aspect, S. & S.E. The town is one of the best-planned seaside resorts. The comparatively very healthy and dry climate is due to the porous nature of the geological formation and, in addition, the facilities for drainage make mists, damp and fogs almost unknown. The sanitation of the town is carefully guarded, and precautions taken from time to time to maintain its efficiency. For an educational centre it is particularly adapted. A fashionable holiday resort, residential town, and cross-Channel packet station, close to Shorncliff camp. One and a half hours from London, modern Folkestone stands on a lofty cliff on the Kentish coast facing the Straits of Dover." On western cliff, 150 feet above sea, are the Leas, a promenade 1¼ miles of asphalted path. greensward, and carriage-way. Sunshine (1921), 1,955 hours. Pop., 35,000.

(Kent). The Medical Officer of Health writes :—"Nearly three thousand children are sent yearly to Margate for their education. The chief reason for the world-wide reputation of Margate as a health resort appears to be : Its dry, bracing climate ; it has the smallest rainfall in England. There is a notable absence of fog ; the subsoil is chalk and the roads rapidly dry even after the heaviest rain."

MALVERN.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :— "Malvern is picturesquely situated on the eastern and western slopes of the range of Malvern Hills, with extensive and magnificent views on both sides. The Hills, which rise to an altitude of 1,400 feet, are easily accessible for delicate persons, either on foot or by carriage. The climate has a most beneficial effect on invalids. The houses are so placed as to receive more than the ordinary amount of sunshine. Weakly children, especially those suffering from tubercular glands or continually recurring catarrhs, in nearly all cases do remarkably well here. The rainfall is low, and the soil dries with remarkable rapidity." The water supply is bountiful and of great purity, and the sanitary state of the district generally of a high standard. Persons having houses to let can obtain "Sanitary Certificates" from the Urban Council, and these are not granted unless the sanitary arrangements are thoroughly up-to-date. The average annual (corrected) death-rate for the past five years is as low as 10·5 per 1,000 of the population. Outbreaks of infectious diseases are few and quickly suppressed, as the Malvern Urban District Council is provided with every means for promptly dealing with any case that may arise. Pop., 17,809. Sunshine (1921), 1,830 hours.

ST. LEONARDS-ON-SEA.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :—"In sunniest corner of England. Great immunity from fog. Climate equab and moderately bracing; mild in winter, cool in summer." Hastings the premier Cinque Port, and one of the old towns in England, is situated amidst historical surroundings on the Sussex coast, between Pevensey Bay and R Bay. St. Leonards, its modern extension to the west, is an integral portion under the one corporation of Hastir and St. Leonards. For more than a century it has been in high repute as a health and pleasure resort: it is unrivalled watering-place for the fragile and sick, and a holiday resort lively throughout the year and patronised all classes of society. On the North and East, St. Leonards is sheltered from the wind, mitigating the severity of t winter; open to the sea-chilled breezes from the South-west it is moderately cool in summer. The sea front, wi bandstands, seats and shelters, is one of the finest marine promenades in the Kingdom, 3 miles long. 62 miles fr London. S.E. & C. Rly. and L.B. & S.C. Rly. SEAFORD.

The Medical Officer of Health writes :—"Population 4,787. On the Sussex coast, 58 miles from London, between Brighton and Eastbourne. L.B. & S.C. Rly. Climate of Seaford is equable, but bracing for south coast health resort. Never very cold in winter, and summer heat always tempered by cool sea breeze, so that hottest days in summer are not relaxing. The climate is dry, rainfall being small and, owing to chalky subsoil, quickly absorbed. There is a large amount of sunshine enjoyed, and nothing to intercept it. There are no high hills to the West to cut off the evening light, and in the winter the sun sets in the ocean. It is a climate eminently suited to convalescents. The Seaford Convalescent Home claims to have been the first of its kind established in the County. Golf, two clubs, each with gentlemen's links (18 holes) and ladies' course." Pop., 4,787.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

THE established Charities and Hospitals of Great Britain plead for special help in this time of their special need. Their history is a vindication of the voluntary principle on which they are founded and administered, the abandonment of which would be a national reproach—only avertible, it is to be feared, by individual response to the general appeal now made. The difficulties resulting from War-created conditions—decreasing receipts, greatly increasing expenditure, and upsetting the estimates and calculations of normal years—have been aggravated by Industrial depression and the incidence of taxation; and now we have to read the sorry news of beds disused, wards closed, and relief in many forms suspended; while in our public thoroughfares we have had to witness the sorry spectacle of medical students, on behalf of their Hospitals, begging in motley and masquerade for coppers.

It is a particularly saddening characteristic of the existing crisis that appeals are made from so many unconnected quarters. In every direction Hospitals and other Charities that have weathered the storm and stress of all other emergencies are now in shoal water and in peril of going aground. Some have already touched bottom and can only be refloated by endeavour at once strenuous and immediate. That endeavour must be made extraneously, for the powerlessness of those on board to avert a pending doom is revealed by their signal: "Save us or we perish."

If he who gives quickly gives twice, he gives more than twice who gives with discretion, and to all who would give discreetly it is of importance to possess abbreviated particulars of the claims, needs and special purposes of existing Charities, Hospitals and Benevolent Institutions. The objects of these many organisations differ, but in principle they are identical however they may vary in their systems and methods, and in the range and character of their administration. For instance, of the Institutions whose direct concern is with Health—the most valuable asset alike of the individual and the nation—the exclusive endeavour of some is to exemplify the soundness of the argument that "prevention is better than cure"; while others, curing where cure is possible, extend their resources to the alleviation of suffering in incurable cases, thus shouldering a far heavier burden. A simple list of the names of the principal Charities would in itself show how comprehensive is the scope of their beneficent work.

Of the organisations devoted to the help, relief and welfare of the Young, one Orphanage, undenominational and unendowed, receives children from the tender age of three months; another combines with the responsibilities of an Orphanage the activities of a Working School; another Orphan School takes, from all parts of the British Empire, children of the necessitous middle class, maintaining, clothing and feeding them; Deaf and Dumb little ones are similarly cared and provided for; for children of parents convicted of crime, and children in danger of evil associations, Village Homes are conducted on the group system, under foster-mothers. There are Orphan Homes from which none is excluded by any consideration of class or creed—to which no destitute child is ever refused admission. The purpose of one Boys' Home is to train necessitous lads for the Army, Navy and Mercantile Marine, and for various civilian occupations at Home and in the British Dominions. For the preparation for sea of boys of good character a Training Ship is kept in commission on which destitute candidates are received free, £18 a year being paid for those whose friends can afford it. Much child-welfare work is carried out by Hospitals—in East London, in South London, and in West London, a fourth receiving from anywhere little patients suffering from any form of Hip Disease, while for the protection of children from cruel usage the officers and agents of a Society are active all over the Kingdom.

All classes of Women and Girls are dealt with by an Association of democratic constitution for mutual help, sympathy and prayer. Another class is reached by a Society for the reclamation of young fallen women, an object also aimed at by a Mission that provides Maternity Rescue Homes. Besides General Hospitals for Women, some Lying-in Hospitals receive married women as well as single women with their first child. At a Hospital for Invalid Gentlewomen medical and surgical treatment is gratuitous, moderate charges being made for board and lodging.

The General Hospitals are practically all-comprehensive in their scope. They constitute the training schools for the future healers of humanity, and their claim upon the public for support is of the strongest. They offer a varied selection to any one willing to endow a Cot at a cost of £500 or a Bed for £1,000—the finest of all memorials. Supplementing the work of the Hospitals, Convalescent Homes and Institutions lighten the lot of the Incurable, and one Institution exists for the noble purpose of opening its doors to the Dying.

Separate Hospitals treat cases of Consumption and Chest Diseases, Fever, Skin Diseases, Cancer, Paralysis and Epilepsy, Diseases and Complaints of the Eye, Ear and Throat, Venereal Diseases (combined with reclamation work), etc. Facilities furnished by a Hospital Society for wounded, sick and injured Seamen are available for sailors of all nationalities. Akin to that of the Hospitals is the work of Societies that supply the needy with trusses and other surgical aids and necessities.

Among Charitable Agencies is one for granting pensions to the Indigent Blind ; the Deaf and Dumb, of whom there are 4,000 in London alone, are specially cared for to the utmost extent of its funds by an Association devoted to those so afflicted ; another Society undertakes the industrial training of blind and crippled girls ; and the benevolence of yet another is exercised for the relief of distressed members (of sixty years and over) of the upper and middle classes. Aged Farmers and their dependents, necessitous Clergymen and their widows and children, Lay Church Workers, men and women, are the separate care of several Corporations, one of which gives immediate assistance to Clergymen, their widows and orphan daughters, in all parts of the Empire. Complementing other relief, an Association makes extra grants to London local committees in poor parishes through the local clergy and district visitors. Shipwrecked Sailors rescued by one Institution are looked after by another, and the special wants of Fishermen are also attended to.

Animals generally, and animals of particular species, are under the care of special Associations, and Homes exist for particular animals, while the sole object of some Societies is to wage war against Vivisection.

Missions are active for the spiritual and temporal good of both British and Foreign Mariners, the neglected denizens of slumland, and other classes. There are several "Armies" and Associations whose services are so extensive that each one might aptly be described as a "Spiritual Army Service Corps." The religious needs of our fellow-countrymen abroad are the concern of specialised effort.

The foregoing is an indication of the channels into which the living streams of charity and benevolence may be directed. But they do not arise from any inexhaustible fountain-head. Their flow can only be continued as long as tributary waters feed them, and, as we have already emphasised, recent seasons have been unprecedentedly dry.

It is not for us to exalt the claim of any one cause over any other. Selection is the prerogative of the giver. Wherever he gives and whatever he gives, assuredly will he prove for himself that the purest of pleasures and the greatest of gratifications, eluding those who seek to enjoy them by gaining, are only to be found in giving.

This National Rescue Society sorely needs your help to maintain its large family of 80 young women and girls who aspire to lead a virtuous life. During the past 117 years it has rescued from the streets some thousands of Betrayed and Fallen Girls. We have closed our accounts for the year 1922 with heavy overdraft at our Bank and therefore are in great need of help.

Gifts addressed to "The Hon. Sec." at the office of the Society: 191, High Street, Stoke Newington, London, N. 16, will be thankfully received.

TWO WAYS

are yours for helping children—the annual subscription during your lifetime and a legacy in your will. Please help us both ways if you can. We have been supported almost entirely by voluntary contributions for over 164 years and have helped 7,000 fatherless boys and girls. We are now giving a home and education to over 300 orphans enabling them to become useful citizens and enriching the Empire. No restrictions as to class or creed; children are admitted from infancy up to 11 years, from all parts of the country. We want to suggest these facts

FOR YOU TO REMEMBER

when you distribute your gifts. May we welcome you as one of the thousand new annual subscribers of one guinea that we need? You would be entitled to votes at each election of children. We want £20,000 annually. It is a splendid work, well worthy of your help, and has the patronage of THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING and QUEEN, and QUEEN ALEXANDRA. H.R.H.
